Hi folks,

ATSDR had an internal miscommunication resulting in me releasing to you a "final" version of the letter before a final reviewer had had a chance to submit comments. Now all of the reviewing scientists have been accounted for, and the attached version of the document has the approval of all of the reviewers.

Sorry about the confusion and thanks for your patience. Please delete the older version I sent out and replace it with this one.

I'm waiting for the EPA memo to go to LWG first. I will wait for your signal to put this letter in the mail. I'm ready when you are.

Thanks,

David Farrer
